

Tabelle1

diocese	In the Catholic Church, a diocese is the area under the control of a bishop.	Diözese, Bistum
doctrine	A doctrine is a set of beliefs that form an important part of a religion or system of ideas.	Doktrin, Lehre
Erasmus of Rotterdam	Desiderius Erasmus Roterodamus (1466/1469 –1536) was a Dutch Renaissance humanist and a Catholic theologian.	Erasmus von Rotterdam
heresy	The term heresy refers to a belief that disagrees with the official principles of a particular religion.	Ketzerei, Irrlehre
indulgence	An indulgence was the promise of freedom from punishment by God. It was sold by priests in the Middle Ages.	Ablass, Ablassbrief
Inquisition	The Inquisition was an institution of the Catholic Church for combating or suppressing heresy.	Inquisition
prince-elect	The prince-electors (or simply electors) of the Holy Roman Empire were the members of the electoral college of the Holy Roman Empire, having the function of electing the German kings, who then usually became Holy Roman Emperors.	Kurfürst